TEAM LAKE NONA DEFENDS TAVISTOCK CUP

Lake Nona retains World Golf and Country Club Championship for second consecutive year

ORLANDO, Fla. – (March 23, 2010) – With a score of 17-13, Team Lake Nona sealed their second successive victory over Team Isleworth and third overall win in the seventh annual Tavistock Cup.

Lake Nona brought a two-point lead into the final day of the interclub competition between Isleworth Golf & Country Club and Lake Nona Golf & Country Club. Combined with their two-point advantage during Round 1, Team Lake Nona conquered Team Isleworth on their home turf and tied the Tavistock Cup series 3-3-1.

Team Isleworth's Nick O'Hern claimed the low medalist for Day Two posting a score of -7 (65). He took home the Payne Stewart Salver Award and the $300,000 prize. Team Lake Nona's Graeme McDowell was runner-up with a score of (-5) 67.

Team Lake Nona's Retief Goosen claimed the closest to the pin challenge on Hole # 2, Team Isleworth's Robert Allenby on Hole #5, Team Isleworth's J.B. Holmes on Hole # 11 and Team Lake Nona's Ben Curtis on Hole # 15.

Team Lake Nona's lineup included captain Ernie Els, Ben Curtis, Ross Fisher, Retief Goosen, Peter Hanson, Trevor Immelman, Graeme McDowell, Ian Poulter, Justin Rose and Henrik Stenson.

Team Isleworth featured captain Mark O'Meara, Robert Allenby, Stuart Appleby, Arjun Atwal, John Cook, Brian Davis, J.B. Holmes, Charles Howell III, Lee Janzen and Nick O'Hern.

Next year's Tavistock Cup will be played at Lake Nona Golf & Country Club March 14 and 15, 2011.
